Senior Intern Positions Available

PCW Youth is a Christ-centered student ministry serving Westfield, NJ and the surrounding area.

Our mission is to create a circle of support around every student.

We provide regular opportunities for fellowship, discipleship and service and we are looking to give a select team of students an opportunity to grow in their faith through leadership.

Responsibilities

- Being a faithful member of PCW Youth in a growing relationship with Jesus
- Being a mature and dedicated member of the Fellowship Team
- Showing love and grace to all 6th-8th grade students
- Planning and Leading games during Middle School Fellowship
- Facilitating conversations in big or small groups when needed
- Attending MS Retreat or Mission Trip if needed

Details

Senior Interns would work Sunday evenings on a rotating schedule with the Fellowship Team from 5:30-8pm. All interns report directly to Courtney Nemec.

Interested? Send a letter explaining your interest in the position and any experience you have that make you a good fit to Courtney Nemec at courtnemec@aol.com.

Each applicant will have a meeting with Courtney and the Fellowship Team. Senior Interns could start as early as Dec. 1, 2018.
